We look forward to the opportunity to update on Mayor and Council on our progress toward building an international-standard art gallery in Cowichan. In particular, we are working with the City of Duncan to option 135 Kenneth Street in downtown Duncan as the future site of the gallery. We've grown as an organization adding part time staff, acquiring the Green Door property, mounting & funding exhibitions, and bringing in new provincial funding to promote arts and culture in our community. If technology allows, we'd like to play a video for Mayor and Council, instead of providing written materials. Although, we can certainly do either or both if/as best suits your processes. Here's the link to the video:
